

These third grade Crown Point students were very fortunate to each receive a personal dictionary from the generous Ticonderoga ELKS Club on September 30.

The 8th grade class at Crown Point is smiling for good reason. They just received news about an essay contest that they all will be competing in on the topic “Why they are proud to say the Pledge of Allegiance”. This contest is being sponsored by the Ticonderoga ELKS.